DANNY & HIS GIRL

- E

On the street where I used to live,
Always some trouble - some kind of grief.
Dreams in bottles, powders & pills,
A stolen leather with a life on its skeene.

They were

Danny had a girl,
She was half his size,
Childhood sweethearts, they survived every flood.
Wheeling & dealing, fixing cars,
He fixed mine one day, didn't see why he should
Danny & his ^{DA} girl ^{All} - Danny & his ^{EM} girl. ^G

I guess

Danny was strange - he was gone for a song,
Like part of him lived in a time that was gone.
- He knew the thrill & the rush of a crime
But - for his girl - Danny walked the line

^{and he}
Danny had a girl.....

last chord after 1st beat of bar. - 'You know'

- Solo. JOAN

You know

The world's full of diamonds masquerading as coal,
Danny was one - some saw the flame.
Cut down one night - alone with his girl,
The killers walked off as his life drained away

^E his soul looks down

^{his} On a childhood sweetheart alone frozen in that time,
& the tears fall down, to the human flood,
Flowing down these streets washing away the blood,
Danny & his girl - Danny & his girl.
